Chetak Foundation ties up with Indian Oil Corporation to roll out its Swasthya Scheme aimed to avert the Third Wave of Covid

The scheme felicitates and rewards drivers and IOCL frontline workers and provides them with Sanitization kits for Covid preparedness

New Delhi, August 09, 2021: Soon after the Hon'ble Union Minister of State for Social Justice and Empowerment Shri Ramdas Athawale formally rolled out Chetak Foundation's Swasthya (Health & Fitness) Scheme to felicitate over 10000 underprivileged drivers and Covid front line workers and provide them with high-quality Sanitization kits, Chetak Foundation (the social arm of Chetak Group, the leader in Automotive Logistics in India) has tied up with India's leading company Indian Oil Corporate Limited to honour their frontline workers and drivers and provide them with the sanitization kits, which will prepare them to avert the Third Wave of Covid.

While speaking on the occasion, Hon'ble Union Minister of State for Social Justice and Empowerment Shri Ramdas Athawale had said, "It is heartening to see Chetak Foundation join hands with Indian Oil Corporation and Delhi Metro to come forward and support the government's efforts by acknowledging the Covid frontline workers and drivers who worked tirelessly during the crisis, helping the public at large remain mobile, while risking their own lives. We need many more corporates and foundations to join hands in such noble initiatives"

Shri Sachin Haritash, Board member, Chetak Foundation said, "Chetak Foundation has been set up to make a positive impact on the lives of underprivileged communities, in line with the vision of our founder late Shri J K Sharma ji. We are honoured that the Hon'ble Minister has blessed our initiative to felicitate over 10000 drivers and Covid front line workers." Speaking of its tie-up with IOCL, he added, "We are really happy that the prestigious Indian Oil Corporate Limited has agreed to join us for this noble cause and it reflects the social ethos being practiced by the organisation. We would like to convey our gratitude to Shri Shrikant Madhav Vaidya, Chairman, IOCL and his entire team."
