CHETAK FOUNDATION

Speaking on the occasion Shri Mohan Lal Badoli, President BJP, Haryana said, "We are proud to confer the title of "Haryana Ka Lal" upon late Shri Jai Karan Sharma recognising his growth story of a farmer's son who belonged to a small village and with his passion and hard work went on to set up one of the largest logistics companies in India. He created immense employment opportunities, supported numerous budding entrepreneurs and through his philanthropic outreach helped education institutions, especially focussing on encouraging girl students. I was happy to hand over the award to his wife and sons who are taking his legacy forward, by expanding his business and through social work."

Sachin JKS haritasH, Director of Chetak Logistics and youngest son of Shri Jai Karan Sharma said, "We are humbled to receive the 'Haryana Ka Lal' award for our father at Sarv Brahman Parshuram Excellence Awards 2024. He was the son of the soil. It is heartening to see the senior leaders and Brahman Samaj acknowledging his contribution to his homeland Haryana. His early education, entrepreneurial journey, passion, tribulations, and triumphs will continue to inspire the youth. His philosophy of growing together helped him take everyone along. His passion for philanthropy saw him support religious and educational institutions. We hope and aspire to take forward his legacy through Chetak Logistics and Chetak Foundation."

About Shri Jai Karan Sharma

Shri Jai Karan Sharma, the son of a farmer, hailing from Jhinjhar, a small village in Haryana was a self-made entrepreneur who started from scratch and went on to build the Chetak Group, one of the leaders in Logistics, in India. His success sparked the imagination of a generation of progressive Indian entrepreneurs. He was a business statesman and visionary who introduced, what is now called Integrated Logistics solutions with multi-modal transportation, warehousing, packaging and just-in-time solutions, and way back in the 1980s.

He stood for inclusive growth. He supported numerous potential entrepreneurs in setting up their own transport companies. He created livelihood opportunities for thousands of people. He had a passion for helping underprivileged people of society. He contributed to the education sector by supporting the infrastructure development of schools and colleges for economically weaker children.

Shri Sharma's contributions to the social and economic development of society at large have been numerous recognised by many national and international organisations. In the past he was awarded the "Transport Rattan" the "Rashtriya Udyog Ratan" Award, "Outstanding National Citizen" and he was also bestowed with the title of "Transport Samraat" and the "Udyog Rattan" Award by the Institute of Economic Studies.

He left for his heavenly abode in October 2020. Posthumously, the Logistics Industry bestowed him the title of "The Logistics man of India" in 2021. Shri G. Kishan Reddy, Hon'ble Minister for Tourism, Culture and Development of the North-Eastern Region, released a postal Stamp issued by the Indian Postal Department to honour and recognise Shri Sharma's contribution to the nation's socio-economic development, in 2022. He was also honoured with the "Life Time Achievement Award" at the Social Impact Award in Jan 2023. He was awarded the title of "The Logistics Man of India" by The Economic Times (ET Auto), was conferred with the "Real Heroes" award by Zee TV and was given a 'Life Time Achievement Award' by the Society of Indian Automobile Manufacturers (SIAM), recently.

His dream lives on, through the Chetak Foundation, a social arm of Chetak Group, set up by his family as a tribute to its founder Late Shri Jai Karan Sharma's vision of making a positive impact on the lives of underprivileged communities. The Foundation is focussing on various areas including Education, Environment, Health, Livelihood, Nutrition and Road Safety.
